The Secretary,

Central Recruitment Board,

Bangalore.

Sir,

I am enclosing two letters addressed to me by two Adi-Karnatakas (1) B.Anjeenaiappa (2) M.Muniswamiah who after passing Kannada lower secondary examination, applied to The School Board Office, Bangalaore for leave substitute vacancies in Adi-Karnatakas Schools and were appointed by him in July 1932. Subsequently the places were advertised through C.R.B. and caste people who applied were appointed. The School Board Officer informs me that the G.O. No. 6475-6624. C.R.Bs. 14-31-2 dated 16th June 1932 does not state that the cancellation of the first preference is not for teachers post in Adi-Karnataka Primary Schools.

I request you will be pleased to let me know whether G.O. No. 454-55 C.R.Bs 1-28-3 dated 14-7-28 (Directs that appointment of qualified Adi-Karnataka candidates be made direct from the vacancies in Adi-Karnataka Schools without advertising the vacancies) is still in force or not.

If it is still in force a G.O. to that effect will help a number of Adi-Karnatakas to get posts in Adi-Karnataka Schools.

A few Adi-Karnatakas were appointed in general schools. As people objected and students refused to attend they were transferred to Adi-Karnataka Schools. Hence if they do not get posts in Adi-Karnataka schools passed candidates will find it hard to enter appointments as teachers.

Bangalore.

Yours sincerely,

R. Gopalaswamy Iyer
